Art Unit: 3634

Claims 29-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There are two claim 29's. In the second instance of claim 29, there is no antecedent basis for "first pivotal connection". In claim 30, there is no antecedent basis for "second pivotal connection". In claim 31, there is no antecedent basis for "first releasable connection". In claim 32, there is no antecedent basis for "second releasable connection".

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3, 5-9, 12-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gross '922 in view of Aihara et al. '906 or Deimen et al. '509.

Gross teaches the device claimed absent the magnetic closure means. Both Aihara et al. (line 12 of the Abstract) and Deiment et al. '509 (col. 8, line 39) describe magnets for the purpose of providing closure means. To provide Gross with a magnet for the purpose of providing a closure means would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention. The precise placement of the magnet...ie..detent...is considered a matter of choice well within the ambit of one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention. Element 74 of Gross can be seen as a mounting tab.

Art Unit: 3634

Claims 10, 11 and 29-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Champion et al. '248 in view of Aihara et al. '906 or Deimen et al. '509. Champion et al. '248 teach the device claimed including a tab and slot (shown in arm 105). Absent is the magnetic teaching supplied by either Aihara et al. or Deimen et al. as described above.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered but are considered moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
